

Gable Top Cartons

Gable top cartons are commonly used for refrigerated liquids such as milk, cream, and juice. They are typically made of about 80% paper and 20% plastic.

Aseptic Cartons

Aseptic cartons are commonly used for shelf-stable products such as juice, soups, and sauces. They are generally made of about 70% paper, 24% plastic, and 6% aluminum.

#5 Plastic Bottles & Jugs

#5 plastic bottles and jugs are commonly used for items such as yogurt containers. They can be identified by the number 5 inside the recycling triangle.

#1 Clamshells

#1 clamshells are rigid, clear, hinged containers commonly used for berries, pastries, and takeout items.

#2 Clamshells

#2 clamshells are often cloudy, milky, or white containers commonly used for food takeout.

#5 Clamshells

#5 clamshells are often white or black containers commonly used for takeout foods and other food packaging.

